1. [Redacted] Chief, Product Review Division, Intelligence Community Staff, advises that the footnote on page 9 of the reference is in error. It reads "Under standing instructions, this [NOIWON] network should have been activated upon the receipt of the first CRITIC, but it was not." In fact, standing instructions (USIB-D-71.11/11, 3 March 1975, "Procedures for the Operation of the National Operations and Intelligence Watch Officers Net") do not so call for the activation of theNOIWON network. It is requested, therefore, that holders of the reference line out the footnote on page 9.
